Instructions and Sample Layout for Preparing Your Camera-Ready Abstracts

John Author, ¹ Eleanor Roosevelt, ² and Fred J. Bibbs³

This sample abstract contains information on formatting your one-page abstract. Please read the entire abstract carefully. Full abstracts of papers for the oral and poster sessions must be submitted by 1 August 1998. Adherence to this deadline is critical to ensure that the abstract volume is published before the conference. The text of the abstract must be in English. The abstract should clearly state the problem addressed, the methodology used, the significant results and concluding remarks. Do not include figures or tables in your abstract. Use equations only if necessary.

Please use the page layout and typing specifications given here when preparing your abstract. Use the U.S. standard letter paper $(8-1/2 \times 11 \text{ inches or } 21.6 \times 27.9 \text{ cm})$. Your abstract, including title, authors and authors' affiliations, must not exceed one page. Center the title 2 inches (5.1 cm) down from the top of the paper. Use 12-point Times Bold font for the title. Skip one line and type the author(s)' names centered, 12-point Times, not Boldface. Authors' affiliations are to be listed as footnotes at the bottom of the page. Use numbers as superscripts after each author's name and before each author's affiliation.

Begin typing the text of your abstract 3-1/2 (8.9 cm) inches down from top of the paper. Use 10-point Times, single-spaced, for the body of your abstract. Do not indent each new paragraph. Leave one space between paragraphs. Layout is single column. Line up text on the left, but do not justify (leave right ragged). Type only one space after a period. Leave a margin of at least 1 inch (2.54 cm) at the bottom of the page. Do not type within this area. Position footnotes so that they end above this 1-inch (2.54 cm) margin. Beginning at the left margin, insert a 2-inch (5.1 cm) line above the first footnote. If properly formatted, the abstract will have a maximum of approximately 475 words and 35 lines.
